Sustainable development (ESG)

As a global FinTech company, XTB roots its business model in technology and human relationships, making the social and governance pillars the core of its sustainability strategy. This responsibility is reflected in the transparent management of over 1,500 employees worldwide and in securing the trust of more than 2 million clients and investors.

A key driver of these commitments is a two-pronged financial education initiative:

- XTB S.A. advances the skills of active investors through specialized programs like the XTB Masterclass.
- The XTB Foundation builds foundational financial literacy through targeted community outreach aimed at reducing economic exclusion.

The XTB Foundation carries out activities in the field of financial education and investment awareness, particularly through programs aimed at equalizing educational (including the “Academy of Tomorrow. Finance with Class” program).
